

MY VALUE & GOD-CENTERED RELATIONSHIPS

I thank you God that YOUR LOVE is the highest and most satisfying love that I will ever know and experience. Your love is perfect and giving. Your love protects me, provides for me and comforts me. I can always count on your love. Your love will never reject me, hurt me, abuse me, misdirect me or abandon me. I recognize that because I have YOUR love, I do not have to seek fulfillment in how anyone else makes me feel. Building my love relationship with you is the most important relationship I will ever pursue.

I know that in order to love someone else appropriately, I must first love myself. I must place the same high value on me that God does. God has made me more valuable than an exclusive, high priced, much sought after designer brand. I am priceless because God crafted me with all the power and authority to be like him, do what he does and to act like he acts. I love me because God has promoted me to a place of honor in his Kingdom. I love me because God has made me Royal and Holy. I love me because I am forgiven, I am not guilty, I am accepted, I am loved, I am wanted, I am special, I am highly favored, I am blessed and I am always a winner. I am a valuable reward, prize and asset to my mate. I am worth waiting for. I am worth cherishing. I am worthy of respect and honor. I am worthy of being heard. I am worthy of being loved exclusively and not being played.

God's all encompassing love empowers me with the freedom to choose. I have made an irreversible choice to:

- Wait until I am spiritually and emotionally mature to date,
- Hear the voice of God and wise counsel concerning my choice of mate,
- Choose a Christian mate that is actively pursuing his/her relationship with God and who builds me up in my faith,
- Choose a mate that understands and expresses the I Corinthians 13 kind of love,
- Choose a mate that is respectful and considerate towards those who have leadership, wise council, care and spiritual authority over me,
- Choose a mate that will agree with me to avoid any physical actions that might cause lustful thoughts or acts until we have entered into a marriage covenant,
- Walk away from any relationship that is abusive, ungodly, lustful, secretive, demeaning, aggressive, disrespectful, unequally yoked or exploitive, and
- Be free from the fear of being alone, different, strange or isolated.

I thank you God that I can trust you in all my decisions regarding who, when and how to date. I roll all of my cares over on you and trust you for a mate that is your perfect will for me.
