

LOVE WALK PRAYER CONFESSION

In the name of Jesus, I decide right now to accept my responsibility in this walk of love. I love you, Lord, and the evidence of my love is the love I show to others. I receive Your power, Your anointing and all that comes as a result of my obedience to walk in love. I will even demonstrate love to my enemies. I open myself up to this love walk. Change me, rearrange me and make me new again. I thank You, God, that I will not miss the very best that You have for me. I won't just wear a Christian label, but I will live as a Christian as well. I will display the fruits of the spirit including love, kindness, and gentleness everyday. I believe that I receive right now the faith to walk in love, in Jesus' name.

Father, please forgive me for not loving as I should. Your Word says that I am made in Your image; therefore it is my desire to love as You do. Right now I tap into the anointing to change, which is made available to me through Your love. I pray that the atmosphere of my life, my home, my church, and my place of work will change as a result of Your love demonstrated through me. Let it begin today.

In Jesus' name I pray. Amen
